WIDEN-UP YOUR MIND
There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system
in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause,
which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. R. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genital-urinary organs.
Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8 Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M. Consultation Free. Thorough examination and advice free.

structions, will be sent to any address on re-

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

To everyone who settles his old subscription account or makes a new one between now and Christmas, we will give as a premium the Continental magazine, a hand-somely illustrated journal published monthly. This applies to both daily and weekly, but not to club rates.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW.

No paper will be issued from this office to-morrow — Thanksgiving Day — as printers, like the rest of the community, will want time and leisure to digest the viands of that festival.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is evident that Ben Butler did not get a clergyman to write his Thanksgiving proclamation. Several Protestant ministers of Boston refused to read it in their churches because of its irreverence, and it has called out a good deal of sharp comment even from the Governor's friends. Perhaps the secret of it is the he engaged Talmage to prepare the document for him, and the Brooklyn sensational preacher tried to be humorous, as he does in his Tabernacle pulpit.

The Lord Mayor of London and other dignitaries invited to hear a lecture by Rev. Dr. Stockton, Cohrt Chaplain to the Emperor of Germany, declined to attend on discovering that the gist of the lecture was to be a tirade against the Jews as a race. He was hissed by the audience, and his speech prematurely ended. Stockton is highly indignant.

An organized movement has been made in London to prevent the further preaching of the polygamous portion of the Mormon missionaries. Well known and influential names are among the promoters of the step.

There seems to be no burning desire on the part of our people to take service in the regular army, and with all efforts, it has been found impossible during the last year to do more than make the enlistments equal the desertions.

The Tiebourn claimant, having now served nearly his full term of sentence, will be discharged in a few weeks. He is a notoriety and will draw either as a lecturer or a saloon keeper.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

Joseph H. Blackfan, Superintendent of Foreign Mails, is dead.

A gentleman of New South Wales has written to the Shakespeare Society that for £30,000 he will reveal the real author of Shakespeare's plays and sonnets.

O'Donovan Rossa, a son of the New York dynamiter, was arrested at Chicago on Saturday, for the larceny of a premium on a policy, and held for examination.

The delegates to the Australian Legislature have all arrived at Sidney N. S. W., to attend the conference to consider the annexation of New Guinea and Federation of English-Australian colonies.

The New York Sun says Mr. Huntington, Sydney Dillon and others, have formed a Railway Shareholders' Association, for the purpose of collecting and selling to newspapers and disseminating in various manners news about railways.

The masons stopped work Saturday on the Washington monument, leaving the shaft for the winter at a height of 410 feet. At this elevation it is the loftiest artificial structure on the continent, and, with very few exceptions, in the world. When completed it will be 550 feet in height.

Secretary Teller says he has decided nothing whatever in relation to the land grant of the Texas Pacific Railway Company, and the rights of the Southern Pacific thereunder. He has not referred and does not propose to refer the matter to Congress, but will decide the case in the regular course of business.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

(PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

International Arbitration League.
 PHILADELPHIA, November 28.

The International Arbitration League met yesterday. The object of the League is to promote the adoption of the nation's principles of international arbitration in settling disputes. Letters of regret of the inability to be present were received from General Grant. He said: "My views of the subject of arbitration have not changed, but my hopes in its speedy accomplishment have diminished; it is only by keeping the subject alive that it can be accomplished successfully." A number of telegrams and letters were read, including a dispatch from D. Appleton, representing the Arbitration League of London. It read: "Protest against the Franco-Chinese war. You have our cordial sympathy." Bishop Simpson was chosen President. Resolutions were offered and referred to a proper committee, asking the United States Government to invite a Congress of nations to consider the question of adopting an arbitration for the arrangement of all differences. Professor Hobbs of Indiana read a paper giving an account of different cases of international arbitration, and said: "The United States has been a party to eighteen out of thirty-three. The indications are that we are rapidly approaching a period of universal peace. A great majority of this country and Great Britain are favorable to the formation of a permanent peace treaty, but the move must come from Washington."

Mormons in England.

NEW YORK, November 28. The London Truth says that a party of Mormon missionaries from Utah have been working for the past six months in western counties, and regrets to hear they have changed the feeling of quite a large number of persons in the rural districts, and induced them to join their egotistical body. Many converts have already gone out to Utah; a still more numerous contingent has been baptized, pending the time when they will be ready to start for the promised land. It is a very lamentable thing to think that after repeated exposures of the Mormon creed there still remain in this country people capable of being ensnared by the outrageous fictions of plausible vagabonds who are regularly despatched to Europe from Utah in search of recruits. In America the humbug of Mormonism has long been so thoroughly exploded that converts are rarely forthcoming, except in persons individually whose room would usually be considered preferable to their company.

Secretary Teller Modifies the Rules Concerning Claim Agents. — More Nice Than Wise.

WASHINGTON, November 28. Recently the Commissioner of Penitentiaries suggested to Secretary Teller, to formulate rules to prevent any but reputable members of the legal profession from practicing before the Interior Department as claim agents. To-day the Secretary sent a long letter to General Dudley, declining to take action in the direction proposed, for the reason that he considers the present rules of the department sufficiently explicit concerning the exclusion of "disreputable" persons, and the law does not compel a claim agent to be a practicing attorney at all.

Biglow, President of the National College of Pharmacy, and 38 students, have left that institution in consequence of the admission of a colored student.

France Will Let in American Pork.

Discovery of Pilgrims' Graves.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., November 28. In making improvements on Calvary Hill, the graves of pilgrims who came over on the Mayflower and were buried during the first winter, have been discovered. One opened contained the skeleton of a middle aged man, five feet and nine inches in height. Another grave held the skeleton of an elderly man. These are the only graves of the first settlers positively identified. A tablet will be placed to mark the exact location.

Riotous Weston.

PRITTSBURG, Pa., November 28. Milton Weston was interviewed last evening and said that as soon as he could obtain his release from jail he proposed to organize a company and take possession of the gas well in spite of the Sheriff or anyone else in Westmoreland county.

Effects of European Restriction on American Beef and Pork.

NEW YORK, November 28. J. B. Grinnell of Iowa, in conformity with the resolutions of the late meeting of cattle men in Chicago has prepared a circular, showing the capital invested in the cattle and swine industry and the losses on exportation consequent upon the restriction regulations and decreased relative consumption of beef. Grinnell finds that there is invested $108,000,000 in cattle alone. The losses on exportations of cattle approximate comparatively in the last four years 155,909 animals valued at $11,500,000.

Grinnell had an interview with President Arthur on the matter with a view to some remedy. The President was greatly interested and will treat the question in his next message. Grinnell found the heads of the Treasury and Agricultural Departments also anxious to extend some aid, and they will do all they can to secure the framing of laws for the consideration of Congress. After consulting the Commissioner of Agriculture, ex-officio chairman of the committee, Grinnell called a meeting to be held at the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington, January 10th, 1884. He hopes that Western people interested in the cattle industry will enlist their Congressional delegations in his behalf.

Habitual Criminals Act.

CHICAGO, November 28. The State Legislature at its last session passed the habitual criminals act, which provides that if any one commits crime after conviction, for the first offense he shall be punished to the full extent allotted by law for such offense, and for crime committed after a second conviction he shall receive 15 years. The first conviction under this statute was that of Wm. Sullivan, who had served terms for shooting at a police officer and for burglary. He was tried for burglary this time, and the jury awarded him 20 years.

Salmon's Victims.

LACONIA, N. H., November 28. The funeral of Ruddy and child, the victims of Sunday's murder, was largely attended in the Catholic Church yesterday. Mrs. Ford's funeral occurred this afternoon from the court-house. The body was viewed by a throng of people. Salmon's hearing will probably take place Sunday in the jail, and will be private. He still thinks the house and dead bodies were destroyed by fire. Mrs. Ruddy is in a dangerous condition, and it is feared that she will not recover.

The Northern Pacific Mail Service.

WASHINGTON, November 28. Mr. Jameson, Assistant Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, went over the Northern Pacific road to investigate the occasion of the delays. LONDON, November 28. A Tokio correspondent had an interview with the Japanese foreign minister, who stated that the Japanese government is most anxious to open the interior of Japan to foreign trade, stipulating only that foreigners availing themselves of the privileges granted shall be under the jurisdiction of the Japanese courts. This will involve a revision of the present treaties and abolition of all foreign legal jurisdiction in open ports.

Threatened Troubles in Algeria.

PARIS, November 28. Algeria advises are that there exists great agitation among the tribes. The success of El Mahdi has aroused Moslem fanaticism, and it is also said that El Mahdi's emissaries are wavering. The Tunisian Governor-General urges upon the French government the necessity of retaining strong military forces in Algeria.

volt at Badjos, upon their presenting themselves within two months to Spanish Consuls abroad. They will be allowed to retain their rank. China Will Fight.

HONG KONG, November 28. The Governor of Hong Kong has just returned from a trip to Peking, where he saw the principal ministers of the Chinese Empire. His opinion is that China is resolved to fight if forced much further by France in the Tonquin matter. China, he says, has 1,000,000 trained men available for operations against the French.

The Reported Defeat of Admiral Courbett.

PARIS, November 28. A rumor is current this afternoon in the lobby of the Chamber of Deputies that Admiral Courbet has been defeated in Tonquin, and his communication cut off. The rumors are given more credence because no official information is forthcoming. Considerable uneasiness is felt at the absence of news from Admiral Courbet's expedition.

Capture of Kartoum Untrue.

CAIRO, November 27. The reported capture of Kartoum was unfounded. Turkish officers of the contingent, ordered for service in London, consent to join the expedition under command of Baker Pasha. Guileless Fenians.

LONDON, November 28. The Irish Government authorities have discovered that the Fenians, Orin dan and McCaffery, for whom rewards are offered, are residing in Ireland and America respectively. WESTERN DISPATCHES.

(PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.)

A Murderous Liable.

TACOMA, W. T., November 28. At 10 o'clock last night messengers came from Seashon Island, eight miles from here, announcing medical aid, saying that a shooting affray had occurred at the residence of Mr. Cheadle. C. C. Crossin, formerly proprietor of the Holstead House, at this place, with his wife, were visiting her father, Mr. Cheadle. Crossin and his wife were in a room together, and about bed time Mrs. Crossin rushed out of the room pursued by Crossin, with a revolver in his hand. He fired two shots at her, when his father-in-law rushed from his room to the rescue. No sooner had he appeared upon the scene than Crossin shot him down. Mrs. Cheadle followed her husband out and Crossin shot her down in the same manner. Jack Bickers, Mrs. Crossin's brother, hearing the shots fired, ran to the spot and wrested the revolver from Crossin and shot him in the mouth with it. Bickers then left in company with two other men for this city to procure medical assistance. No cause is assigned. It is supposed that Crossin is insane.

was a gambler, and was taken to the woods and flogged by a peace committee. The testimony for plaintiff closed to-night. The defense will offer that Boyle sustained no injury, but on the contrary, it did him good.

—A Baltimore judge has just decided that a man is liable under a law of Maryland for slanderous words uttered by his wife, and a Mr. Scholes of that city, has had to pay $105 because Mrs. Scholes had said unkind things of a Mrs. Mache. This decision certainly tends to complicate the marital relation in Maryland, and will increase the caution with which young men of limited incomes are supposed to approach the wedded state.

O'Keefe's Story

Dan O'Keefe denies having had anything dishonorable to do with the Downey-Burns foot-race Sunday last, but says he was afraid it was to be a "chuck," and advised his friends not to bet any money.

He says he drove to Verdi Sunday night, and boarded the freight train where he met Downey and Burns on their way to Truckee, and accused Burns of "throwing off" on his friends. Burns called him a liar, and he whacked him over the head with a pistol. As he passed through to the rear of the car, Downey jumped down from his seat in the caboose cupola and hit him a hard blow in the left eye. At this stage of the proceedings they clinched, when Downey caught his (O'Keefe's) finger between his teeth and was biting it. O'Keefe again pulled his pistol and told Downey to let go his finger or he would shoot.

Downey refusing to do so, he shot off his pistol, but not with any intention of hitting him. At this stage of the scrape, O'Keefe was jumped upon by four of Downey's friends and disarmed. He claims that Downey gave money to Burns' backers to bet for him, and in that way gained their confidence, then ran the race out on them.

INTERESTING SUGGESTION

The Red Sunsets Caused by the threat of a Dead World.

Last evening the GAZETTE expressed the opinion that the redness of the sky was caused by some peculiar condition of the higher strata of air which reflected the sun's rays long into the night, but did not dare to go guessing as to how the changes in the atmosphere had come about. The Enterprise tackles the conundrum and produces the following theory: This light is not formed by the rays of the sun upon clouds, but something in the atmosphere above the clouds. This has been observed here every night. A few days since the earth passed through

THAT REGION OF SPACE

In which it was liable to encounter more or less numerous those cometary fragments which form the November meteors. We passed the point where we should have met with the meteors, and very few were seen, yet may we not have reached a point in interplanetary space swarming with meteoric matter in the shape of an impalpable powder, that which astronomers call cometary dust? This dust, catching the slanting rays of the sun, would produce exactly the effect now nightly observed here for over a week. Our comstock watchmen report that the same redness is seen of mornings. We are probably passing through the smoke of the burnt-out tail of Temple's comet, or some other old and shattered wanderer through interstellar space.

THE COLORING

Is much more like the light of the aurora borealis than any sunset glow ever seen in this region. Never before in the history of this country has such a thing been observed in this State. It is not only here, but also in Utah, that the phenomenon is visible, and the Idaho papers come to us with wondering accounts of the strange light in the heavens. It has been observed all the way up the coast to Oregon, and perhaps as far as there are human beings to note it. A dispatch from Portland, Or., a day or two since, said: "From 5 to 6 o'clock to-night there was a brilliant display of auroral lights. Notwithstanding there were heavy rain clouds all around the horizon and rain was falling, the heavens north and west were as red as if illuminated by burning buildings in the distance."

A Very Remarkable Sentence.

The Latin sentence Sator arepo tenet opera rotas, is perhaps the most peculiar to be found in any language. Let the sentence be read from right to left and the same words, sator arepo tenet rotas will appear in the same order as when read from left to right. Now let the first letter in sator, a the first letter in arepo, the first letter in tenet, o the first letter in opera, and the first letter in rotas, be united into one word, and the result will be the first word of the sentence, viz: sator. The remaining words of the sentence can each of them be framed in a similar way. The second letters respectively of the words of the sentence giving the second word; the third letters respectively, the third word, and so on. The first word read backwards, gives the last word; the second from the beginning read backwards gives the second from the last, while one word tenet reads the same backwards as forwards. The sentence may be freely translated thus: "God pervades (or fills) the whole universe, and has entire control of all its movements." Four of the words in this remarkable sentence viz: sator, tenet, opera and rotas, are classic Latin, and but one, arepo, is a Latin vulgarism for adrepit. The meaning of each word is as follows: Sator literally, "planter," "father," "creator," and hence God as the Planter, Father and Creator of all things; arepo for adrepit, literally, "creeps into," "infiltrates oneself into," and hence "pervades" or "fills"; tenet, literally, "holds," and hence with the addition of opera, conveys the idea of holding or having under entire or full control, the workmanship of the universe; opera, literally "works" or "workmanship"; rotas, literally, "wheels," and hence "motion" or "movement."

GRANVILLE F. FOSTER, Reno, November 27, 1883.

The Leading Magazine for Boy and Girl.

ST. NICHOLAS

EDITED BY MRS. MARY MAPES DODGE.

THE New York Tribune once said: "In the avalanche of immoral literature that threatens the children, some strong, vital, wholesome, and really attractive magazine is required for them, and St. Nicholas has reached a higher platform and commands for this service wider resources in art and letters than any of its predecessors or contemporaries."

The reference to the wide resources in art and letters commanded by St. Nicholas was never more fully illustrated than by the extraordinary list of attractions which that magazine announces for 1904. The following will be some of the leading contributors:

Lucius M. Alcott, J. T. Crowbridge, Captain Mayo Field, Hjalmar H. Horth, Maurice Thompson, Frances, Chas. Dudley Warner, Frank B. Stockton, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Joaquin Miller, Henry Hawthorne, Celia Thaxter, Mary Mapes Dodge, Lieut. Frederick Schwab, E. S. Brannan, George W. Cable, Rose Hawthorne Lathrop, Chas. G. Leland, John G. Whittier, Susan F. Powell, C. P. Cranch, "H. H.", W. G. Shedd.

And scores of other distinguished writers. The best artists and engravers illustrate the magazine. It has been truly said that the reading of St. Nicholas is

"A LITERARY EDUCATION."

For the boys and girls who are fortunate enough to have it. In no other book or periodical is instruction so happily blended with recreation and amusement. The price is $3.00 a year, or 25 cents a number. Book-receivers, news-dealers and postmasters receive subscriptions, or a full rate may be made direct to the publishers, by money or express order, bank check, draft, or in registered letter.
